Staff

I employ three full-time members of staff, all at 30 April 2008 within the £25-35,000 salary band. Two are Parliamentary Assistants and are not and never have been members of my family. The third, my Personal Assistant and Constituency and Diary Secretary, is my wife, who was formerly employed as Constituency Secretary for two other Members of Parliament, including a former Prime Minister. She also accounts to the Parliament and Inland Revenue for tax and national insurance deductions. She is not paid for this last work. In addition I employ the services of a part-time press officer and occasionally other people on a project basis. None of these are or have ever been members of my family.
