

Philip Bushill-Matthews MEP

Addendum to Member's Register of financial interests 2008

In Brussels I employ a full-time Research Assistant, formally accredited to the European Parliament, who deals with all my parliamentary work in Brussels and Strasbourg.

In my UK constituency I employ my wife as a full-time Assistant, also formally accredited to the European Parliament, who deals with constituent queries and correspondence, local media contacts, and organises my UK diary. This regularly requires working unsociable hours. She is paid within Salary Band C (between £20,000 and £30,000).

Both assistants have official contracts duly registered with the Parliament and are paid via a Paying Agent, a major firm of UK Chartered Accountants, who ensure that appropriate taxation and national insurance deductions are made.

Together with my two West Midlands Conservative MEP colleagues, I share a Service Provider "The West Midlands Regional Conservative MEP Office", which acts as a central contact point and fulfils a marketing and communications function across the region, with an official contract duly registered with and paid for directly by the Parliament.
