Declaration of members' interests office
European Parliament

Dear Sir

I would be grateful if you would add to the Register of Members Financial Interests the fact that, from the beginning of this month, I am a member of the Advisory Board of SITA UK. This is a remunerated post.

Yours sincerely

Caroline Jackson MEP

D) FURTHER INFORMATION:

I have two assistants working in my Brussels office. The senior receives a salary in the £30-40,000 band and the junior one receives a salary in the £20-30,000 band. I have a secretary working part time in Swindon who receives a salary in the £10,000-20,000 band. Their salary payments, PAYE etc are handled by a Swindon firm of accountants. I have a service provider contract with my part-time press agent who works out of Okehampton. The sum he receives is in the £10-20,000 band. In 2006-7 I made three consultancy fee payments to my husband (each in the band £0-10,000) for his assistance in writing my pamphlet on waste management, and my report and associated speeches and articles on the waste framework directive on which I am the Parliament's rapporteur. There are and have been no other payments to family members or to private companies.
