14th July 2008

In my capacity as President of the Parliamentary Intergroup on Sustainable Development I was provided with air travel to and from Reunion Island between 9th and 13th July 2008, to address an international conference, under the auspices of the French Presidency, entitled "The EU and its Overseas Entities: Strategies to Counter Climate Change and Biodiversity Loss." My air tickets were paid for by IUCN - the International Union for Conservation of Nature - and their partner sponsors of the conference, including the French Presidency.

While I was in Reunion Island, a car and driver was placed at my disposal courtesy of the Regional Council.
